APPLICATION FOR RESIDENCY CLASSIFICATION FOR TUITION PURPOSES

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA–LINCOLN

IMPORTANT THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT APPLYING FOR RESIDENCY

- Enrollment at any College, University or Community College in the State of Nebraska during the twelve months prior to the term for which you are seeking residency will adversely affect your residency eligibility. A person must be admitted before a residency decision can be made.

- Individuals who have moved to Nebraska primarily to enroll in a post-secondary institution in Nebraska will be considered a non-resident for tuition purposes for the duration of his/her attendance at the University.

- All applicants for admission to the University of Nebraska should be aware that an individual may qualify as a “resident” of Nebraska for one purpose (such as securing a Nebraska driver’s license) and still not meet the standards established by the Board of Regents for resident tuition status. Individuals seeking a Nebraska residency determination for tuition purposes should, therefore, carefully study all aspects of the law and these regulations before seeking resident tuition status.

- Individuals who did not graduate from a Nebraska high school may be considered a non-resident at the time of admission.

- A change in resident status for tuition purposes is not granted automatically. An individual who has been classified as a non-resident at the time of admission must submit an Application for Residency Classification for Tuition Purposes and all applicable supporting documentation before resident status can be determined.

- All students must register and enroll in classes for the term in which residency is sought. Failure to register for the term for which residency is sought will result in the cancellation of the residency application. To apply for a subsequent semester or term, one must submit a new application and provide appropriate updated supporting documentation.

WHAT REGULATIONS DETERMINE RESIDENCY?

A student’s right to become a resident for tuition purposes at the University of Nebraska is determined according to provisions of the Nebraska Revised Statutes (reissued 1987). In accordance with these statutes, the University has been authorized to develop regulations and to make decisions regarding Nebraska residency for tuition purposes. These regulations provide the basis upon which the Dean of Enrollment Management/Director of Graduate Admissions or the Dean’s designee determines whether students qualify as Nebraska residents for tuition purposes.

Individuals seeking residency for tuition purposes will be required to have their applications signed before a notary public attesting to the accuracy of their statements (Section IV, Affidavit of Intent of Application). If it is subsequently determined that information on an application has been falsified, the applicant may be subject to disciplinary action by the University before the individual will be permitted to continue to enroll at the University. Such disciplinary action will be determined on an individual basis, and may include measures such as disciplinary probation or suspension, expulsion from the University, or reimbursement to the University for the difference between the tuition paid and the non-resident tuition rate.

According to the policy, once an individual has registered and attended the University or one of Nebraska’s state colleges as a resident student he/she will be afforded that privilege during the balance of that enrollment. provided the individual has a current domicile in Nebraska. Any subsequent re-enrollment as a resident would have to take place within two (2) years of the last date of enrollment (provided the individual has a current domicile in Nebraska at time of application).

IS THERE AN APPEAL PROCESS?

Individuals who believe they have been incorrectly denied residency for tuition purposes may appeal that decision in writing to the Dean of Enrollment Management/Director of Graduate Admissions. Their decision shall be final in any such appeal.

DEFINITION OF TERMS

For the purpose of these regulations, the following definitions shall apply:

- Dependent: A person who is claimed as a dependent or an exemption for federal income tax purposes by parent(s)/guardian(s).

- Emancipated Minor: An individual who by virtue of marriage or financial status has become independent of his/her parent(s)/guardian(s) as defined by Nebraska statutes.

- Resident Fees: The resident tuition rate as set by the Board of Regents and applicable to the academic program in which an individual intends to enroll.

HOW TO APPLY FOR RESIDENCY

Individuals who have been classified as non-residents but believe they qualify for resident status should review the various categories outlined in this application packet. After determining the appropriate category, each applicant should:

- Complete and submit an Application for Residency Classification for Tuition Purposes.

- Provide photocopies of requested support documentation.

- Apply to the graduate or undergraduate office as appropriate.

WHEN TO APPLY FOR RESIDENCY?

Once a student is admitted to the University of Nebraska an Application for Residency Classification for Tuition Purposes can be submitted for the term the student was admitted. Residency applications should be completed as soon as possible, but no later than the last day of the term.

DEADLINE: The last day to apply for residency for a specific term is the last day of classes for that term.
